Schmidt has been sentenced to banishment to Siberia.

This leniency it is explained, is due to the fact that the government had folialized proof that Capt. Schmidt had fallen into the hands of a few usarers who induced him to sell the plans to a rich Jew.

This lew, it is alleged, acted in a very treacherous madner with the unfortunate captain, as he retained the bribe given by the foreign power, which virtually obtained possession of the plans and then betrayed Schmidt for a reward to the Ressian government.

English coast The fish was three feet long

Mr W A Milliken of Bar Harbor tells the Eliscorth American of a novel entertainment which he is preparing to take place soon Hils plan is to shipwreek a vessel during the prevalence of a heavy seas, somewhere on the Mount Desert coast, near Schooner Head or Otter Creek. He means to fit up a good looking vessel, put a crew on board, and them when the right kind of weather comes, advertise for a crewd of spectators whom he will admit to the seene at a given price, to behold the spectacle, and when all is ready run his vessel into the breakers where she is expected to go to pieces. He will have a life-saving crew on the spet with the necessary apparatus to save lives and property.
